LEXINGTON MEETING ENDS

SUCCESSFUL FINANCIALLY AND OTHERWISE BEYOND ANTICIPATIONS.

Outcome Assures the Future of the Kentucky Ass ciation-Final Day's Sport Marred by Rain Record Price for Mutuels.

Lexington, Ky., May 7.—The Kentucky Association's spring meeting of seven days, which ended today, was successful financially and otherwise beyond the expectations even of the officials of the organization. The proceeds from the gate, the betting ring and the privileges were more than double the amount taken last spring. The racing was decidedly of a higher order and it attracted the best of the process of the process of the control of the best of visitors from a far than have been coming here in late years. The meeting has demonstrated that Lexington has a future on the racing map and that the people of the blue grass region with money to invest, particularly those who are engaged in the business of breeding running horses, are about to let a good thing slip away from them unless they wake up. The present association, formed after the death of Capt. S. S. Brown, bought the racing plant for $70,000. Stock was issued for half of the amount, which was paid in eash to the Brown estate. Notes has been reduced to $27,000 through the sale of $3,000 worth of the stock that was held in the treasury and from the proceeds from race meetings that have been given since the formation of the Kentucky Association. Nearly, if not quite, two-thirds of the stock that has been issued is owned by people living in Louisville and elsewhere outside of the blue grass region. The directors of the association during the past winter tried without success to sell enough of the treasury stock to lift the debt of $27,000, that instead of paying interest to channels that would result in improvement in the grounds and the racing. They were not able to do this because the people hereabouts, blinded by agiration in New York and Canada against bookmaking, were unable to see the possibilities at home.

J. N. Camden, who resigned the presidency of the Kentucky Association to accept in membership in the State Racing Commission, said yesterday that he istends to increase his holdings in the local track, and Irving H. Wheaterof remarked that a contro stallions as Rock Sand, Watercress, Star Ruby, Orgden, St. Savin, Stalwart, Mazagan, Hermis, Nasturtium, Ben Brush, Peter Pan, Ballot, Hippodrome, etc.

The Breeders' Futurity for 1911 will have an estimated gross value of about $7.500. In addition to this, for next spring there will be the Blue Grass Stakes for three-year-olds, with $1.500 added, and the Camden Handlean, for three-year-olds, $1.000 added. The Breeders' Futurity for 1912 will be opened this summer. There were many enthusiastic expressions at the meeting today as to the future of Jexington as a racing point.

The State Racing Commission, at its meeting this morning, revoked the license of trainer John Markleh and declined to grant a hearing in the case of M. J. Daly, whose application for a license had been refused. The action in the Marklein case was taken apon the recommendation of the judges at the Kentneky Association's soring meeting, the direct cause being the reversal of form shown in the running of the horse. W. A. Leach. Mr. Marklein and his father. Jake Marklein, of Cincinnati, were hopeful that the commission might give the young trainer another chance, but this action has blasted such hopes and John Marklein will now sell his interest in the horses that he has been racing. M. J. Daly is silent as to his intentions. Daly's coming under the ban, it is said, is due directly to the reports that have come from Florida concerning a race taken by Coser at Pensacola, April 26, in which it is alleged that W. H. Bickers and others planned a big betting coup throughout the country. The commission adjourned to meet again at Louisville next week on a day to be selected by Chairman Clay.

The racing ended this afternoon in a terrific rainstorm. The rain began falling before daylight and ow noon the track was a sea of mud. Then the clouds passed and for a couple of hours it was clear, but when the horses went to the post for the opening race the rain again came down in sheets. So it was intermittently all afternoon, winding up with everything at th

FAYETTE IN FINE FETTLE

SON OF OGDEN LOOMS AS ONE OF TRULY GOOD HANDICAP HORSES OF 1910.

Continues His Victorious Career by Winning the Kings County Handicap in Easy Fashion-Big Crowd at Aqueduct.

New York, May 7.—S. C. Hildreth's Fayette was an easy winner of the Kings County Handicap at Aqueduct today. In winning the race, he ran a mile and a sixteenth in 1:45\\(\frac{1}{2}\) to easily beat Magazine and Wander. The latter was added by A. Wilson at the eleventh hour. The race was one that further stamps the son of Ogden as one of the truly good handicap horses of this season. The early pace made by Magazine was very fast and jockey shilling pulled back when the Carman horse went the first half in 46\\(\frac{1}{2}\). When called on, Fayette came with a great rush and at the end had plenty to spare. The race run by Magazine was a good one and it is not to be wondered that he faltered after setting such a terrific pace.

The weather was bright and summerlike for the first time this season and the crowd was the largest since the opening. Besides Fayette. Rose Queen and Bashti, the Newcastle Stable's two-year-old daughter of Adam. scored as favorites.

Rose Queen, ridden-by jockey Shilling, only had to run her three-quarters in 1:14½ to easily dispose of her opposition, and Bashti had no trouble in beating some smart fillies. Eddic Dugan also scored for S. C. Hildreth in the six and one-half furlongs dash that was the opening number. Elfin Beau, the favorite, was raced into exhaustion chasing Galley Slave and this had much to do with the victory of Hildreth's three-year-old.

The race for gentlemen riders went to Dullcare, ridden by Otto Fleischmann. Ed Ball. the favorite, finished last of the trio that ran. Banyah passing him right at the end. Pat Dunne's Crash was one of the disappointments of the day. She was at oddson in the last race, but third was the best she could do. Blue Mouse and Adrian, both at good prices, easily beating her.

J. R. Keene's Grasmere this morning worked a mile and an eighth in 1:56 in preparation for the Metropolitan Handican. Maskette was sent the same route in 2:60. Sweep, the Futurity winner of 1909, worked a mile in 1:43.

Capt. E. B. Cassatt's Colors Carried to Victory in Feature of Pimlico's Closing Day.

Baltimore, Md., May 7.—This was the closing day of the spring meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club and a monster crowd turned out to witness the racing. Long before post time for the opening race the grandstand was jammed and it was found necessary to throw open the Infield to accommodate the overflow. A conservative estimate placed the attendance at 10,000. An excellent program was provided for the occasion. There were eight races, with the Preakness Handicap and the Green Spring Valley Steeplechase, over the two miles and a half course, as features. A round dozen went to the post in the Preakness, and the finish resulted in a duel between Layminster and Dalhousic, with the former first home features. A round dozen went to the post in the Preakness, and the finish resulted in a duel between Layminster and Dalhousie, with the former first home by half a length. Dalhousie showed a fine performance. He went to the front at barrier rise and led until the lightly-weighted Layminster passed him in the last 100 yards. Layminster carried the famous red, white and blue clors that the great horse. The Bard, sported so often. Layminster ran coupled with Medallion as the Captain Cassatt entry, and while at the post Medallion kicked his stablemate on the shoulder and inflicted an ugly gash from which the blood flowed profusely.

Sager, which finished third, showed a remarkable performance under a bungling ride. Nicol had the colt in close quarters most of the time and he was repeatedly interfered with. At the finish he closed with a great rush and would surely have won had the distance been a sixteenth farther.

The Green Spring Valley Steeplechase proved easy for iAlgie, which fenced well and won under restraint. Rossfenton was the only one of the six that failed to finish. He loost his rider at the tenth jump. The flags on the clubhouse and grandstand were displayed at half mast out of respect to the memory of the late King Edward.

Just after the starters for the Preakness, warmed up, the four-year-old Statesman, the colt that was favorite in last year's Preakness, and which broke some of the smaller bones in one of his fore ankles in that race, was paraded on the track and galloped from the furlong post to the paddock. Statesman has been again put in training by his owner, F. E. Gardner, and it looks as if he will stand.

Mrs. A. H. Bradley sold the promising two-year-old. Ivyton, to Dr. J. S. Tyree this morning for $500.

The Clyde stable, numbering thirty head, will be shipped to Toronto about May 17.

WOODBINE TRACK IN GOOD CONDITION.

Horses Working Over It in Preparation for Canadian Season-Dyment and Seagram Stable Lists.

Toronto, Ont.. May 7.—Woodbine, even in all its glory of race-day, never looked more fresh and beautiful than now. The frequent rains have made the field from one end to the other the same beautiful green as the great bowling lawn, and the track itself is in wonderful condition in spite of the same rainfall that so greatly benefited the infield. The banks in the steeplechase course have been brushed and trimmed and need only the red and white flags to be ready for racing. The many horses quartered there are taking their daily work at a rate that signifies readiness for the struggles now so close at hand. Thursday "Canada Jack" Adkins Pessara horse, Robert Cooper, went three-quarters handliy in the middle of the track in 1:222, and his Chuctanunda filly. Carrillon, did half a mile in 525.

The evergreen province-bred Caper Sauce looks in his eighth year better than ever and he romped half a mile with Cannie Maid in 53. A smart two-year-old, Half-Way, by Orme Shore—Verna K., went a quarter in 26 seconds with Broadsword, whose half was in 522.

Mr. Boyle's two-year-olds all had useful gallops and Detective, one of the most impressive of thoroughbreds, did his mile in two minutes, cager to run faster.

Nat Ray's jumpers, Byzantine, Braggadocio, King Holiday and Suddent King, worked miles in better than two minutes, and this accomplished horseman will cut a considerable figure in the decision of the races through the field this spring.

Ban Brazil sent Greendale the first three-eighths of a-three-quarter mile work in 39. King of Mist had an easy mile.

Tom Meagher, who is training half a dozen borses, including the King's Plater, Parade, a five-year-old by Procession, brought some of them down from Little York for a gallop.

The racing string of the Messrs, Dyment have arrived from Barrie, and have taken up the quarters they will occupy at Woodbine until the meeting is over, J. E. Seagram's lot, consisting of the following, arrived from Waterloo yesterday:

There are ten in the Dyment string, including eight two-year-olds. Fort Garry and Chief Kee are the others, the complete list being:
Fort Garry, ch. g. 4, by Fort Hunter—Flying Bess.
Chief Kee, b. c. 3, by Alloway—Decade.

Allan Doone, ch. c, 2, by Fort Hunter—Miss Morgan.

Fort Garry, now a geiding, will run in the shorter races this year and should do credit to the speed represented in his pedigree. His spread foot, which prevented him from racing after mid-summer, is now as good as new and Chief Kee has grown into a grand-looking horse and will be useful in the events for three-year-olds over a considerable distance of ground. All the horses show that their trainer has taken advantage of the early season and the young-sters have gone three-eighths in 36, while the three-year-old has been a mile in 1:45 at home, so that they will lack nothing in the matter of readiness. With no King's Platers for this season among his lot, trainer Dyment will be able to look philosophically on the troubles of others who are preparing horses for the guineas. Naturally the brother to Star Wave called for much attention as the string paraded up the stretch to their stables near Wood-bine avenue on their arrival and Joe Doane was eagerly watching for the duplicate of the colt that did so well for him last year. He is a high-flying youngster, Halley's Comet, and Mr. Doane said: "He's a young champion, sure, and I hope he'll turn out as good as his brother. This is Halley's Comet's year to shine."

On Friday Fort Garry found the track so inviting that he overpowered his boy and ran away a couple of miles over it when he came on for his first gallon.
He was timed a mile and a quarter of the run in 2:21, and pulled up pretty tired, but apparently not nuch distressed. Chris Meldrum sent the Kickfield Stable's three-year-old. Bursar, five-eighths in 1:05.

The Valley Farm Platers, Parmer, Whaup and Last Post, showed a nice turn of speed, going a quarter in 24, half a mile in 5:04, three-quarters in 1:21 and cased up the mile in 1:54. Last Post went only the first part with the others. Parmer was the leader and he is beyond question a fast colt that will take a lot of benting in the race for the king's guineas. Denham worked an eighth in 12. This fellow has had a long rest and will not be hurried.
Glimmer worked a mile in company with Lord Elam and English Esther in 1:532, going the first half in 504, and three-quarters in 1:194. Plaudmore went three-quarters in 1:24 and a mile in 1:533.

Thomond—Three-quarters in 1:21£. From the championi Bouquet, twice winner of the Toronto Autumn Cup. to the youngest, J. E. Seagram's horses could not look may better. From the four cligibles for the Plate, Pearl Fisher, Tollendal, Jane Shore and Carrie Milner, it is probable that the four-year-olds will be chosen to carry the colors on May 21, and they are sure to give a good account of themselves. Jane Shore has not filled out as well as anticipated since last year, but she is a beautifully, one whose conformation and way of moving stamp her as better than ordinary, and it may be that trainer Littlefield will prefer to depend on the older pair, and reserve the daughter of Martyndom for a task that will not involve so strenuous a preparation as is needed to fit a three-year-old to go a mile and a quarter so early in the year.

LEXINGTON MEETING ENDS.

Muletta W., winner of the third race, paid $830.70, there being only two $2 tickets and no $5 tickets sold on her. The odds they received were $414.35 for $1. The largest mutuel odds of record in this country prior to this was $236.50 for $1 paid on Nichajack's victory at Jerome Park October 12, 1872. The tickets sold that day were for $5 each and they paid $1.178.00. In this race George B. Ott's Lady Vie, a superior mud runner, was an overwhelming favorite. In the mutuels $1.376 of the $1.749 that was wagered straight was bet on her, making her virtually a 1 to 4 favorite. Lady Vie was hard ridden all the way, but seemed utterly unable to show any speed in her favorite 2day. The Camden Handkap Consolation Stakes, for three-year-olds, was the feature of the day, at a mile, and was taken easily by A. B. Lowe's Foxy Mary. E. R. Bradley's Colinet was favorite of the three starters. Floxy Mary's margin at the end was two lengths. Relluf, outrun at all stages, was fit teen lengths back of Colinet. This race completely eliminates Colinet as a Derby possibility, likewise Relluf. Oriental Pearl, purchased at auction yesterday by W. J. Treacy, bidding for James P. Ross. the track superintendent, for $135, won the second race by half a length after a drive with Helen Scott, Louise B., Bo-Peep and Tom Fisher, the best-supported horses, finished out of the money. Going to the post in the fifth County Tax unseated jockey J. Wilson and ran away a quarter of a mile at top speed.

Wilson and ran away a quarter of a line at top speed.

The three-year-old chestnut gelding, Hand in Hand, by Handsel—Aimless, in John Rodegap's stable, was stricken with paralysis while standing in his stall this morning and, on the advice of Dr. Shannon, was destroyed. This gelding was a brother to Busy Man. His dam is well femembered as the mare that was alleged to have been substituted by E. E. Farley for Sarah Black in the famous ringing case at Detroit seven or eight years ago.

Starter Milton suspended jockeys Jackson, Ganz and Wilson for three days each for all but their contract employers.

Contract employers,
Nearly all of the regulars left here tonight for Louisville on a special train.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Barleythorpe is one of the largest and heaviest tree-year-olds in training in the east.

Felix Robert, owner of Silver Stocking, has some-thing of a reputation in Mexico as a buildighter. He is a native of France.

Racing in England has been suspended out of re-spect to the memory of King Edward VII., one of the pillars of the English turf, whose sudden death is sincerely mourned in racing circles throughout the wide world.

Housemaid, winner of the Breeders' Futurity at Lexington, is not eligible to the Kentucky Oaks of 1911. Neither trainer Colston nor owner Harrison at the time the Oaks closed expected the daughter of Broomstick to develop into a crack, and so the filly was not entered.

De Mund, T. S. Martin and Sanctus are now in training at Gravesend. Ed Peters brought the horses from the farm recently, and all look to be in good health and condition. They are training sloyly, De Mund being high in flesh and not likely to be seen at the post in some time.

Montgomery was scratched at Aqueduct Thursday because he was lame. The Pessara horse struck himself in work and one of his ankles filled. Mr. Hildreth does not consider the injury serious, how ever, and the stout chestnut will probably be seen at the post again in a few days.

When Maskette appeared on the track at Aqueduct for her preliminary Thursday, James Rowe's roan pony accompanied her, but he did not attempt to beat her to the judges' stand as he used to try to beat Colin and Celt, not always with bad success. The roan is still willing to run with the best horses in the Rowe establishment, but he is getting gray with neg.
